CHATHAM CONVENTION.

There will be a Convention of the Conservatives of Chatham County held at Pittsboro, on Saturday, the 8th day of June, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and the different County offices. Each Township is requested to hold a primary meeting on Saturday the 1st day of June, and appoint five delegates to attend the County Convention.

W. L. LONDON,
Chairman County Ex. Committee.

CURTIS H. BROGDEN AS A GRANT REPUBLICAN.

Last week, we gave the record of Brogden, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, as a "Littlefield Republican," as the friend and assistant of Littlefield in seeking to abolish the Phillips Committee of Investigation, which so thoroughly exposed the rascality and corruption of certain Radical lights. Again we presented him to the public as a Bond Republican, as offering to deposit ten thousand dollars in Bonds with Col. Humphreys, for security should the Colonel sign his official Bond as a Revenue officer. Later, we held him up to popular scorn as being an advocate of putting negro officers over white privates in the State Militia. This we suppose makes him a truly loyal Republican.

We now propose to consider him in the light of a Grant Republican, as desiring to use the military to subvert civil law, to stir up strife among neighbors, and to carry elections by military violence.

When the Militia Bill was under consideration in the Senate, Judge Osborne into holding a course that course which afterwards led to his official decapitation.

Should Brogden be elected Lieutenant Governor, what assurance have the people of North Carolina that he will not again use his influence to stop investigation? What assurance have they that he will not strive to have negro officers put over white privates? What assurance have they that he will not endeavor to have "detailed militia" used to subvert the law, and to carry elections by military force?

Judging the future by the past, he will certainly do all these things. Will he not prove himself hereafter as great an enemy of the civil law as he has heretofore shown himself to be?

No man with such a record as Brogden's, should receive the support of honest North Carolinians. Misguided negroes may vote for him, but the liberty-loving white men of the State, never! They will evince their utter detestation of him—of his principles and his conduct, by overwhelmingly defeating him in August next.

THE PROSPECTS OF GREELEY.

The political situation is novel and interesting. The probabilities seem to favor the endorsement of Greeley and Brown by the Democratic Convention which meets in Baltimore on the 9th July. There will be bitter and strong opposition to this, and it is by no means certain that the endorsement will be made. At this juncture, however, public opinion, especially in the South, seems to point in that direction.

The Democratic Convention of Tennessee, which recently re-nominated Gov. Brown, adopted a resolution favoring the Cincinnati nominees.

In Kentucky, Gen. John C. Breckenridge, Garrett Davis and Leslie Coombs are strongly in favor of Greeley.

In Virginia, the popular sentiment is very decided against a Democratic nomination at Baltimore; and two of the leading papers, the Dispatch and Whig, are clamorous for Greeley, unconditionally and absolutely, and hoot at the idea of the Democrats putting a third ticket in the field. We may put it down as certain, then, that the Virginia delegation that will be sent to Baltimore, will violently oppose the policy of making a straight Democratic nomination.

In Missouri, Illinois and other Western States, the Democratic sentiment, as far as developed, appears to be for Greeley and Brown.

In Ohio and New Jersey, Greeley will meet with strong opposition in our party, and in Indiana he seems to have no strength. Mr. Bird, member of Congress from New Jersey, declares he will not vote for him, even if he should be nominated at Baltimore, while Mr. Voorhees, of Indiana, has recently made a terrible onslaught against him, which is perhaps the heaviest blow he has yet received since his candidacy.

In Pennsylvania, the opposition to Greeley among the Democrats is day afternoon, May the 2nd, and Greeley was not nominated until next day, Friday. Therefore, it was impossible for these gentlemen "to advocate the immediate and cordial adoption of the nomination of Greeley and Brown."

In their speeches on May 1st, both Gen. Clingman and Gov. Vance expressed strong hopes that the Cincinnati movement would bring relief to the Southern States from the long night of despotism—a sentiment which no doubt found a cordial response in the bosom of every Conservative and Democrat present.

In the second place, we believe that neither Gov. Vance nor Gen. Clingman, has, since the adjournment of the Greensboro Convention, made any public declaration as to the course that North Carolina ought to adopt in the present emergency in political matters. At any rate we have not seen nor heard any thing from them that would justify the language used by our cotemporary.

WHO PASSED THE BILL?

"Will the Hon. A. S. Merrimon inform us who the Attorney of Geo. W. Swepson & Co. was, and who drafted the bill whereby the State of North Carolina was swindled out of her Bonds?"—New Berne Times.

Judge Merrimon drafted a Rail Road bill for Swepson, in the regular course of his professional business as counsel, for which he received his fee.

Judge Merrimon never favored the bill, nor did he use the slightest agency in getting it through the Legislature.

Will the New Berne Times tell the public this fact, which Gov. Caldwell does not deny, that Gov. Caldwell subsequently remodeled the Swepson bill, and that it is in Caldwell's own hand writing as it finally passed the Legislature?

Will that paper tell the public that Gov. Caldwell, while Speaker of the Senate, used his personal and political influence in favor of Swepson's bill, and that it was passed in the form which Caldwell desired, and as altered in his own hand-writing?

It was not the drafting of the bill, which any lawyer would have done under instructions from his client, that caused the people of North Carolina to be cheated and swindled. It was enacting the bill into a law, which was done under the influence and by the advice of Governor Caldwell himself, that did the mischief.

For this, Caldwell, not Merrimon, is responsible. Judge Merrimon never advised nor recommended the passing of the bill, nor in any manner did he give any aid in getting the bill through the Legislature.

THE BILL WAS PASSED THROUGH THE INFLUENCE AND ACTIVE AGENCY OF GOV. CALDWELL AND HIS FRIENDS.

LET THE TRUTH PREVAIL.

"We see some of our Democratic exchanges state that Hon. John Pool voted against Gen. Ransom taking his seat. This is untrue. The legality of Gen. Abbott's claim having been decided in the negative, the vote on the admission of Ransom was unanimous."

success than the present. They present a ticket composed of the ablest and best men of the State, with a record untainted by any acts of fraud or corruption, and standing upon a platform that even the Radicals can find no valid objection to, with a party harmonious and united, while their opponents have a load of corruption, extravagance and misgovernment to carry and defend, with a ticket weak and objectionable in many points.

[From the Tarboro Southerner.

The cool assurance with which Mr. Greeley would thus appropriate to his own service some three millions of Democratic votes, would simply be laughable, if it was not in some degree caused by the premature utterances of certain Democratic journals. If he reads his own paper he may condescend to notice that a Democratic Convention has been called, and he can further feel assured that the party can only be guided by its voice. In what way he so readily discerns the course it will take, it is not for us to know. As to the accuracy of his predictions, time will tell. He assuredly can only claim a self-imposed authority for blowing defiance to Philadelphia through a Democratic trumpet. His intimation that he will, in case the Democrats "drive him off the course," abandon the friends who have chosen him their leader, and ignominiously make terms with the faction he now opposes, is too puerile to be regarded in any other light than as an idle menace. The gist of the whole matter rests in the fact that is more and more patent, that the real power in the present campaign is in the Democratic party. What its action will be cannot be certainly known until after the ninth of July.

[From the Kinston Advocate.

After more thoroughly canvassing the matter in our own mind, since our last issue, we are convinced that it will be wisdom upon the part of the Democrats to put no ticket of their own in the field, but to simply endorse the Cincinnati nominations of Greeley and Brown. Any other course will not only drive Mr. Greeley from the field, and ensure Grant's election, but will prove suicidal to our party.

We want reform in the administration of our Government, and Mr. Greeley is pledged to that reform. The Platform upon which the Convention has placed him, guarantees all that we can reasonably ask for, and even his enemies must acknowledge that he has the honesty and statesmanship, to enable him to keep faithfully all his pledges to the country.

[From the Elizabeth City Economist.

There are some indications that the popular feeling of appreciation of the nomination of Greeley and Brown, will become so strong and decided as to take the subject out of the control of the politicians, and like the Harrison storm of 1840, bear them into power upon a tidal wave of popular enthusiasm. This popular sentiment is probably the outgrowth of the intense feeling of hostility to the military usurpations of the Republican party under the lead of Gen. Grant, and signifies the determination of the people to subordinate all consideration of men or measures to that one great danger which now threatens our institutions, as it has already deprived us of our personal freedom.

RALEIGH, March 17, 1871.

MR. JAMES PIRSSON—Dear Sir: It affords me great pleasure to speak of the real merits and excellence of your Pianos—Great Union Piano Co. I have used one of your instruments in my music room ever since last August, 1871, and candor compels me to say that I do not know of another make which I should prefer to your Piano. The instrument keeps remarkably well in tune, and not a string has been broken. Hoping that the demand for your Pianos will never cease,

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the "State Executive Committee" of the Democratic-Conservative party in the city of Raleigh, on Friday, the 7th of June next, on important business, and especially for the purpose of appointing four Delegates and four alternate Delegates for the State at large, to the National Democratic Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 9th of July next.

Two Delegates and two Alternates to the said National Convention, for each Congressional District in the State, will be appointed by the several Conventions of the party, soon to be held in the respective Districts.

If not thus appointed, they will be selected by the State Executive Comlast Monday, at his place on the Chowan. He took the "Helen Smith" that morning, went down to the seine beach, and after getting there he complained of feeling fatigued. Having gone into a room to lie down and rest, those who went in after a few minutes found him dead. He was for a long time the proprietor of a hotel at our county seat, but for many years previous to the war had farmed on a large scale in Manney's Neck township.

We are pleased to see that several of our citizens recognizing the beautifying powers of paints, have been applying it to their dwellings and stores. We hope to see their example followed until the old town, by the banks of the sweetly smiling Meherrin, shall become entirely rejuvenated. When your Mr. Stone shall pay us his promised visit, this summer, we hope to be able to afford him at least a few indications of improvement since he last stood upon the soil of Hertford.

R. H. Whitaker, Secretary of the State Council of the Friends of Temperance, delivered an address on the subject of temperance at the Methodist church last evening. He is, to-day, organizing a council in this place, and we sincerely trust that we shall soon see great benefit from it.

Greeley stock seems to be rising in this section, and the impression generally prevails that it will be unwise and impolitic for the Baltimore Convention to make a nomination. Our people argue that we have no hope of electing any straight Democratic ticket, and that it is better, while keeping up our organizations in the States, to accept the philosopher of the Tribune as the most available man against the "great smokist," Useless S. Grant. These, we are free to confess, are our sentiments, but we are disposed to be charitable, and are willing to allow our friends—whom we recognize as the defenders of Constitutional liberty—equal freedom of opinion. The South ought by all means to be represented by her ablest men in the Baltimore Convention. We must not allow ourselves to be dragged by Northern Democrats into any policy that will seriously jeopardize our best interests. We have fought the useless battles of the Northern democracy long enough; it is time now to look to our own political welfare. We yield to no man in offering thanks to the noble spirits at the North who have stood up for constitutional freedom, and the rights of our oppressed people against a proud and arrogant majority; but when the odds against us are so heavy, we prefer to make the best of circumstances, and make the fight with those who hold out the best terms, with at least a slight hope of victory.

We shall not forget soon our recent pleasant visit to the "City of Oaks," and shall ever cherish the kindness extended us while there by the attaches of the News, and by the members of the family of our most estimable host, Col. Geo. Little. Each and every one of these has a consecrated spot in our memory. HERTFORD.

CURTIS H. BROGDEN AS A GRANT REPUBLICAN.

Last week, we gave the record of Brogden, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, as a "Littlefield Republican," as the friend and assistant of Littlefield in seeking to abolish the Phillips Committee of Investigation, which so thoroughly exposed the rascality and corruption of certain Radical lights. Again we presented him to the public as a Bond Republican, as offering to deposit ten thousand dollars in Bonds with Col. Humphreys, for security should the Colonel sign his official Bond as a Revenue officer. Later, we held him up to popular scorn as being an advocate of putting negro officers over white privates in the State Militia. This we suppose makes him a truly loyal Republican.

We now propose to consider him in the light of a Grant Republican, as desiring to use the military to subvert civil law, to stir up strife among neighbors, and to carry elections by military violence.

When the Militia Bill was under consideration in the Senate, Judge Osborne offered to amend the Bill by adding an additional section as follows:

"Sec. 25. That the detailed Militia provided for in Sec. 5 of this Act is only designed to aid the Sheriff in each county in the preservation of order," &c. See State Journal, page 180 for 1869.

Curtis H. Brogden voted against Judge Osborne's Amendment!

Pray, Mr. Brogden, what was the design of the detailed Militia? To what other uses than to aid the Sheriff, could you lawfully put the Militia of North Carolina? Not designed to preserve order? What then? To stir up strife? To subvert civil law? To carry elections in the interest of the Radical party? Ah! now we see why you favored putting negro officers over white privates!

Now we discover the secret spring of your action! The detailed militia was to be used for such purposes that you could not get white men in the State to carry out! Even at that early day, you had dreamed of Kirk's campaign—had laid your plans to introduce into the State confusion and disorder by means of Republican cut-throats. You had in your seat in the Senate, deliberately, in cold blood, pronounced your determination that the militia should not be confined to the preservation of order! Oh, no! A band of dirty followers were to be organized and were to be officered by negroes! These were to be called "The Detailed Militia," and they were to be sent to various parts of the State, not to preserve order—not to enforce the law, but rather to promote disorder—to subvert the law—and to drive the white voters from the polls!

Verily, Brogden, thou art a Grant Republican! There seems to be nothing in our Constitution—in our Republican liberties, too sacred for you to destroy in your mad endeavors to secure the success of your vile party.

No wonder you could vote with such cheerfulness to acquit Gov. Holden of his political crimes.

No wonder you can admire the boldness with which he executed his iniquitous designs.

No wonder you now—even now—endorse his illegal action while Governor of the State.

For you were hardly warm in your seat as a Republican Senator before you emphatically declared that the detailed militia were not to be used merely to preserve order. You whispered into Holden's ear to pursue that course which afterwards led to his official de-capitation.

Should Brogden be elected Lieutenant Governor, what assurance have they that he will not strive to have negro officers put over white privates? What assurance have they that he will not endeavor to have "detailed militia" used to subvert the law, and to carry elections by military force?

Judging the future by the past, he will certainly do all these things. Will he not prove himself hereafter as great an enemy of the civil law as he has heretofore shown himself to be?

No man with such a record as Brogden's, should receive the support of honest North Carolinians. Misguided negroes may vote for him, but the liberty-loving white men of the State, never! They will evince their utter detestation of him—of his principles and his conduct, by overwhelmingly defeating him in August next.

THE PROSPECTS OF GREELEY.

The political situation is novel and interesting. The probabilities seem to favor the endorsement of Greeley and Brown by the Democratic Convention which meets in Baltimore on the 9th July. There will be bitter and strong opposition to this, and it is by no means certain that the endorsement will be made. At this juncture, however, public opinion, especially in the South, seems to point in that direction.

The Democratic Convention of Tennessee, which recently re-nominated Gov. Brown, adopted a resolution favoring the Cincinnati nomination.

In Kentucky, Gen. John C. Breckenridge, Garrett Davis and Leslie Combs are strongly in favor of Greeley.

In Virginia, the popular sentiment is very decided against a Democratic nomination at Baltimore; and two of the leading papers, the Dispatch, and Whig, are clamorous for Greeley, unconditionally and absolutely, and hoot at the idea of the Democrats putting a third ticket in the field. We may put it down as certain, then, that the Virginia delegation that will be sent to Baltimore, will violently oppose the policy of making a straight Democratic nomination.

In Missouri, Illinois and other Western States, the Democratic sentiment, as far as developed, appears to be for Greeley and Brown.

In Ohio and New Jersey, Greeley will meet with strong opposition in our party, and in Indiana he seems to have no strength. Mr. Bird, member of Congress from New Jersey, declares he will not vote for him, even if he should be nominated at Baltimore, while Mr. Voorhees, of Indiana, has recently made a terrible onslaught against him, which is perhaps the heaviest blow he has yet received since his candidacy.

In Pennsylvania, the opposition to Greeley among the Democrats is very formidable, and will not, without great difficulty, be overcome. We have seen extracts in the World from thirty-four Democratic papers in Pennsylvania, all of which strongly urge a straight out Democratic nomination, and some of them ridicule the idea of "surrendering to a newly organized faction of uncertain strength."

In New York, however, a strong influence has been brought to bear in Greeley's favor by the adoption by the Democratic State Convention, at Rochester, of the Cincinnati platform, and by its practically pledging the support of New York to the Greeley ticket at Baltimore.

North Carolina is looking on calmly and quietly at the situation. If the Baltimore Convention shall endorse the Cincinnati ticket, our party in this State will endorse the action with great unanimity. While we can cheerfully vote for Greeley against Grant, yet if there is any chance to do any better, we would like to do better.

By the 9th of July, who can say what may be the aspect of affairs? WAIT AND SEE!

GOVERNOR CALDWELL SAID IN HIS SPEECH AT CARTHAGE, THAT HE WAS IN FAVOR OF GIVING THE PRESIDENTIAL POWER TO SUSPEND THE WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS IN THE SOUTH!

CLINGMAN AND VANCE.

"Clingman and Vance, in their speeches at the Greensboro Convention, when the nomination of Greeley and Brown was first announced, advocated the immediate adoption of the nomination by the Convention, but more cautious counsels prevailed, and no official action of the Convention gave expression to its views as a body."—E. City Economist.

In an admirably written article in that able and valuable paper, the Elizabeth City Economist, occurs the foregoing language, in reference to the speeches of Gen. Clingman and Gov. Vance at Greensboro.

We are sure that our cotemporary has been misinformed as to the position of these distinguished gentlemen. We heard them both at Greensboro, and we are confident that they gave no utterance to the language attributed to them by the Economist.

In the first place, both of these gentlemen spoke on Wednesday, the 1st of May, before any nomination was made at Cincinnati. In fact the Greensboro Convention adjourned sine die Thursday afternoon, May the 2nd, and Greeley was not nominated until next day, Friday. Therefore, it was impossible for these gentlemen "to advocate the immediate and cordial adoption of the nomination of Greeley and Brown."

In their speeches on May 1st, both Gen. Clingman and Gov. Vance expressed strong hopes that the Cincinnati movement would bring relief to the Southern States from the long night of despotism—a sentiment which no doubt found a cordial response in the bosom of every Conservative and Democrat present.

In the second place, we believe that neither Gov. Vance nor Gen. Clingman, has since the adjournment of the Greensboro Convention, made any public declaration as to the course that North Carolina ought to adopt in the present emergency in political matters. At any rate we have not seen nor heard any thing from them that would justify the language used by our cotemporary.

WHO PASSED THE BILL?

"Will the Hon. A. S. Merrimon inform us who the Attorney of Geo. W. Swenson & Co. was, and who drafted the bill whereby the State of North Carolina was swindled out of her Bonds?"—New Bern Times.

Judge Merrimon drafted a Rail Road bill for Swenson, in the regular course of his professional business as counsel, for which he received his fee.

Judge Merrimon never favored the bill, nor did he use the slightest agency in getting it through the Legislature.

Will the New Bern Times tell the public this fact, which Gov. Caldwell does not deny, that Gov. Caldwell subsequently remodeled the Swenson bill, and that it is in Caldwell's own hand writing as it finally passed the Legislature?

Will that paper tell the public that Gov. Caldwell, while Speaker of the Senate, used his personal and political influence in favor of Swenson's bill, and that it was passed in the form which Caldwell desired, and as altered in his own hand-writing?

It was not the drafting of the bill, which any lawyer would have done under instructions from his client, that caused the people of North Carolina to be cheated and swindled. It was enacting the bill into a law, which was done under the influence and by the advice of Governor Caldwell himself, that did the mischief.

For this, Caldwell, not Merrimon, is responsible. Judge Merrimon never advised nor recommended the passing of the bill, nor in any manner did he give any aid in getting the bill through the Legislature.

THE BILL WAS PASSED THROUGH THE INFLUENCE AND ACTIVE AGENCY OF GOV. CALDWELL AND HIS FRIENDS.

LET THE TRUTH PREVAIL.

"We see some of our Democratic exchanges state that Hon. John Pool voted against Gen. Ransom taking his seat. This is untrue. The legality of Gen. Abbott's claim having been decided in the negative, the vote on the admission of Ransom was unanimous."

The above is taken from a Radical paper, published at Elizabeth City, called the North Carolinian.

It is a matter of record that John Pool, a day or so before the admission of Gen. Ransom, made a speech in favor of Abbott's claim, and voted to admit Abbott. The vote was 42 to 10; John Pool and nine other Radical Senators voting for Abbott's admission. The next day Gen. Ransom was voted in, without a division.

Does the North Carolinian mean to say, after Pool had made a speech in favor of Abbott, and voted for his admission, that on the next day he voted for Gen. Ransom? If so, that places Pool in a more contemptible attitude than if he had voted against Ransom. Such sneaking hypocrisy would be unparalleled in the history of politics.

The vote was so overwhelmingly in favor of Ransom's admission that no division was called for; and it is the height of impudence and meanness for Pool to pretend he was in favor of Ransom's admission, after having boasted that he had worked successfully to keep Ransom out of his seat for thirteen months, and after having spoken and voted for Abbott's admission.

The language of the Carolinian is not only subterfuge and evasion, but is infamous, in that it is calculated to conceal the base conduct of Pool.

EXTRACTS FROM OUR STATE EXCHANGES.

[From the Battleboro Advance.]
A call has issued from the Executive Committee of the Democratic party for a National Convention, to be held in Baltimore the 9th of July.

We have always favored the holding of a Convention of our party, because we think it would give more satisfaction. We however oppose the making of nominations opposed to those made at Cincinnati, for purely prudential reasons. If Greeley and Brown are endorsed at Baltimore, no power on this earth can prevent their election.

[From the Fayetteville Eagle.]
We can afford to go for any man or any measure that our friends go for, but our friends likely to go for Greeley. In the Presidential election of 1868 there were near six million of votes, and of these nearly three million were Democratic. Virginia and Texas did not vote and Georgia voted irregularly. The change of a few thousand votes in Pennsylvania and Ohio from Republican to Democratic would have changed those States to Seymour, and thus elected him seven majority by the electoral vote.

[From Winston Sentinel].
We are sure that our friends go for Greeley, but our friends likely to go for Greeley. In the Presidential election of 1868 there were near six million of votes, and of these nearly three million were Democratic. Virginia and Texas did not vote and Georgia voted irregularly. The change of a few thousand votes in Pennsylvania and Ohio from Republican to Democratic would have changed those States to Seymour, and thus elected him seven majority by the electoral vote.

[From the Tarboro Southerner.]
ORGANIZE.—The Conservative party in this State have never entered upon a campaign with brighter prospects of success than the present. They present a ticket composed of the ablest and best men of the State, with a record untainted by any acts of fraud or corruption, and standing upon a platform that even the Radicals can find no valid objection to, with a party harmonious and united, while their opponents have a load of corruption, extravagance and misgovernment to carry and defend, with a ticket weak and objectionable in many points.

[From the Tarboro Southerner.]
The cool assurance with which Mr. Greeley would thus appropriate to his own service some three millions of Democratic votes, would simply be laughable, if it was not in some degree caused by the premature utterances of certain Democratic journals. If he reads his own paper he must concede to notice that the Democratic Convention has been called, and he can further feel assured that the party can only be guided by its voice. In what way he so readily discerns the course it will take, it is not for us to know. As to the accuracy of his predictions, time will tell. He assuredly can only claim a self-imposed authority for blowing defiance to Philadelphia through a Democratic trumpet. His intimation that he will, in case the Democrats "drive him off the course," abandon the friends who have chosen him their leader, and ignominiously make terms with the faction he now opposes, is too puerile to be regarded in any other light than as an idle menace. The gist of the whole matter rests in the fact that he more and more patent, that the real power in the present campaign is in the Democratic party. What its action will be cannot be certainly known until after the ninth of July.

[From the Kinston Advocate.]
After more thoroughly canvassing the matter in our own mind, since our last issue, we are convinced that it will be wisdom upon the part of the Democrats to put no ticket of their own in the field, but to simply endorse the Cincinnati nominations of Greeley and Brown. Any other course will not only drive Mr. Greeley from the field, and ensure Grant's election, but will prove suicidal to our party.

We want reform in the administration of our Government, and Mr. Greeley is pledged to that reform. The platform upon which the Convention has placed him, guarantees all that we can reasonably ask for, and even his enemies must acknowledge that he has the honesty and statesmanship, to enable him to keep faithfully all his pledges to the country.

[From the Elizabeth City Economist.]
There are some indications that the popular feeling of appreciation of the nomination of Greeley and Brown, will become so strong and decided as to take the subject out of the control of the politicians, and like the Harrison storm of 1840, bear them into power upon a tidal wave of popular enthusiasm. This popular sentiment is probably the outgrowth of the intense feeling of hostility to the military usurpations of the Republican party under the lead of Gen. Grant, and signifies the determination of the people to subordinate all consideration of men or measures to that one great danger which now threatens our institutions, as it has already deprived us of our personal freedom.

The Heroine of the Ocean.

It has been stated the brig Abbie Clifford, of Stockton, Me., was spoken April 6, on the Equator, bound to New York from Pernambuco, with Captain Clifford dead, the mate in a dying condition, and Mrs. Clifford, the Captain's wife, sick. Advice received lately report that the vessel was again spoken on the 21st of April, in latitude 22 North, longitude 50 West, in command of Mrs. Clifford, the mate in the meantime having probably either died or remained too ill to navigate the vessel, which duty was being heroically performed by the lady. It appears that between the 6th and the 21st ult. she had sailed the brig 23 degrees of latitude, notwithstanding her sickness, and according to a recent despatch succeeded in bringing her into port. Mrs. Clifford belongs to Stockton, Me., and had sailed in company with her husband on many previous voyages, during which she took great interest in the profession of her husband, by whom she was taught the art of navigation. In the present emergency the knowledge thus acquired is being used in a manner to reflect the highest credit upon her sex, and presents an example of patience and fortitude which must win the admiration of men. Captain Clifford, the late husband, was about thirty-five years old, and was highly respected for his excellent character and skillful seamanship.

The "white hat" is likely to become quite a popular thing this year. In New Orleans the day after the nomination of Horace Greeley, the demand for them was so great that all the supplies of the dealers were exhausted.

TRANSFORMING THE COMPLEXION.—The transformations produced by HAGEN'S MAGNOLIA BALM are quite as astonishing as any scene on the stage of a theatre. That famous beautifier, transmutes a sallow, peevy looking complexion, into one in which the lily and the rose vie for admiration, and imparts to a dry, harsh skin, the softness of perfect velvet. Tan and freckles, which country air and sunlight are pretty sure to produce, in spite of parasols and sunshades, are completely obliterated by it; while it has a perfectly magical effect in banishing undue redness, blotches and pimples from the skin. When the lady who is used to it, notices her complexional defects looks in the mirror, she is equally astounded and gratified at the improvement in her appearance. Every blemish has disappeared: her neck, arms and bosom, now rival in whiteness the snowy mantles which encircle her throat, her cheek is ready to invoke a blessing on the inventor of the article which has wrought such a delightful transformation.

If you desire rose cheeks and a complexion as fair as Pimples, blotches and eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

WHAT CARE?

Shall I, wasting in despair,
Die, because a woman's fair?
Or make pale my cheeks with care,
Cause another's roses rare?
Be she fairer than the day,
Or the flowery meads of May,
If she be not fair for me,
What care I how fair she be?

Shall my foolish heart be plied,
Cause I see a woman kind,
Or a well-disposed nature
Joined with a lovely feature?
Be she meeker, kinder than
Turtle-dove or pelican,
If she be not so to me,
What care I how kind she be?

Shall a woman's virtue move
Me to perish for her love?
Or her well-deserving known
Make me quite forget my own?
Think what with them they would do
Which may gain her name of best;
If she be not so to me,
What care I how good she be?

Cause her fortune seems too high,
Shall I play the fool and die?
These that bear a noble mind,
Where they want of riches find,
Think what with them they would do
That without them dare to woo;
And, unless that mind I see,
What care I how great she be?

Great or good, or kind, or fair,
I will not of the name despair,
If she love me, this I believe,
I will die ere she shall grieve,
If she slight me, when I woo,
I can scorn and let her go;
For if she be not for me,
What care I for whom she be?

MISCELLANEOUS.

TO THE WHOLESALE TRADE OF

VIRGINIA

AND

NORTH CAROLINA.

WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE

that our

WHOLESALE

IS NOW COMPLETE IN ALL ITS

VARIOUS BRANCHES

And that in extent and variety it exceeds any we have heretofore had the pleasure of exhibiting. Many of our GOODS were purchased in the months of December and January, before the

HEAVY ADVANCE IN ALL

DRY GOODS.

And we are prepared to offer Goods as

LOW as any Jobber in the United States in verification of this assertion we only ask an examination of our stock. Our stock embraces everything adapted to the wants of Virginia and North Carolina Merchants.

We have this season paid especial attention to

WHITE GOODS

AND

YANKEE NOTIONS.

and will offer the same lower than they can be BOUGHT IN THE STATE. Terms liberal. Particular attention paid to orders
